GREATEST OF LECTURES.
 Perhaps the most successful lecture ever heard in this country, says Victor Smith in the New York Press. was delivered by Josh Billings. He said to me shortly before his death in 1885, "I am not only delighted, but astonished, at the vitality of the old 'lectur' which I have read for the last twenty-three years on the road. In the first place, every line of it was published in the New York Weekly and the Poughkeepsie papers; then it was put into more than 100 newspapers and I have delivered it; then I have read it in every city on this continent that has 15,000 people, and in hundreds of towns that have not 2,000 people, and never has had anything added to it, but much cut away from it, and it is now read from the same book it was first written in, and still the brave old man-script fights a good fight. I read it six nights in California in the last seven weeks and got $750. It seems to me there must be some sand in the old words."

BEAUTY AND STRENGTH
 Are desirable. You are strong and vigorous, when your blood is pure.
 Many—nay, most—women, fail to properly digest their food, and so become pale, sallow, thin and weak, while the brightness, freshness and beauty of the skin and complexion depart. Remove this unpleasant evil, by eating nourishing food, and taking a small dose of Herbine after each meal, to digest what you have eaten. 50c. Sold by Elvey & Hulet, The Live Druggists.

 tion with our trade. HAYNES-PAR-

HOW TO WARD OFF AN ATTACK OF RHEUMATISM.

"For years when spring time came on and I went into gardening, I was sure to have an attack of rheumatism and every attack was more severe than the preceding one," says Josie McDonald, of Main, Logan county, West Va. "I tried everything with no relief whatever, until I procured a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and the first application gave me ease, and before the first bottle was used I felt like a new person. Now I feel that I am cured, but I always keep a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm in the house, and when I feel any symptoms of a return I soon drive it away with one or two applications of this liniment." For sale by all druggists.

HERBINE CURES.

Fever and ague. A dose will usually stop a chill, and a continuous course cures. Mrs. Wm. M. Stroud, Midlothing, Texas, May 31, 1899, writes: "We have used Herbine in our family for eight years, and found it the best medicine we have ever used, for a gripple, bilious fever, and malaria." 50c. Sold

WALKS WITHOUT CRUTCHES.

I was afflicted with sciatica, writes Ed. C. Nud, Iowaville, Sedgewick Co., Kansas, "going about on crutches and suffering a deal of pain. I was induced to try Ballard's Snow Liniment, which relieved me. I used three or four bottles. It is the greatest liniment I ever used, have recommended it to a number of persons, all express themselves as being benefited by it. I now walk without crutches, able to perform a great deal of light labor on the farm." 25c.

SPOONER'S REJECTED HONORS.

In the new edition of the congressional directory Senator Spooner makes a revision of his biography, in which he furnishes a few items of news not heretofore known. He states that he was offered the position of secretary of the interior by President McKinley, to succeed Secretary Cornelius N. Bliss; that he was also offered the position of attorney general, to succeed John W.
 Griggs, and that he declined the tender of a place on the United States and British joint high commission.

AN INTERESTING COMPARISON.

It would naturally appear that owing to the price for which imported champagnes are sold, the combined revenue for the sale of all these wines would be in excess of the amount paid annually for any single brand of bottled beer.

But such is not the case, as the United States Custom House statistics clearly and definitely prove.

Anheuser-Busch's Budweiser not only exceeds in sales all other bottled beers combined, but has proved itself the brightest competitor of imported champagnes by exceeding their annual revenue more than three and one-half million dollars.

The sales of Budweiser during the year 1902 were $1,790,300 bottles, averaging 25 cents per bottle, amounting to $224,075.75.

The United States Custom House records prove the importation of all champagnes for the year 1902 to be $60,708 cases. Figuring on a basis of 12 quart bottles per case—4,328,496 bottles, and if sold at the maximum, $4.00 per bottle, to the consumers, amounted to $17,513,584.

From these figures it will be seen that Budweiser's lead was $3,333,561.

It is a noteworthy fact that this pure and wholesome beverage is fast sur-planting imported champagnes upon the banquet table, just as it is sur-planting the deceiver upon the sideboard in American homes.

This is as it should be, and marks a perceptible advancement in the direction of true temperance.

Budweiser is a brew that is known the world around, and is not only preferred by discriminating customers because of its rare flavor, fine efferves-cence and perfect maturity, but prescribed by physicians everywhere on account of its absolute purity, nourishing and upbuilding effects.

BETTER THAN PILLS.

The question has been asked, "In what way are Chamberlain's Stomach & Liver Tablets superior to pills?" Our answer is: They are easier and more pleasant to take, more mild and gentle in effect and more reliable as they can always be depended upon. Then they cleanse and invigorate the stomach and leave the bowels in a natural condition, while pills are more harsh in effect and their use is often followed by constipation. For sale by all druggists.

SAVE THE LOVED ONES!

Mrs. Mary A. Vile, Newcastle, Colo., writes: "I believe Ballard's Horebound Syrup is superior to any other cough medicine, and will do all that is claimed for it, and it is so pleasant to take. My little girl wants to take it when she has no need for it." Ballard's Horebound Syrup is the great cure for all pulmonary ailments, 25c and
